Directions for Use

For best results, fry pappadums, however they can also be microwaved. To Fry: immerse a pappadum in 2.5-4 cm (1-1.5') of hot oil (180°C) and fry for 4-5 seconds until crisp and golden brown. Remove from oil and drain on paper kitchen towel. The pappadums should be served immediately. To Microwave (750W): lightly brush both sides of approximately 10 pappadums with vegetable oil. Place the pappadums in between a sheet of kitchen paper and place in the microwave oven. Microwave for 15 seconds on full power, turn the pappadums over and microwave for a further 15 seconds on full powder. Do not exceed prescribed cooking time.
